

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

JAMES STLOUIS,

PLAINTIFF,

v.

LT.MORRIS, et al. ,

DEFENDANTS.

C.A. NO. 06-236-SLR

JURY TRIAL REQUESTED

MOTION TO COMPEL

Plaintiff moves this court for an order to compel for the following reasons:

- a. Plaintiff has asked Lt DeJesus to produce an investigative report that was filled in June of 2006 about the solicitation of inmates to persuade plaintiff to drop his case.
- b. Plaintiff has verbally twice and written once but to no avail. Finally plaintiff approached Lt DeJesus the week that the depositions were to be finalized and told him he needed it for his meeting with the department of Justice But was told that he DeJesus had talked to Mike Little about the case and Plaintiff again asked was he going to give the report to him but DeJesus again said he talked to Little and was advised not to.
- c. Plaintiff met with Mike Little on Friday 8/30/07 and was told that he never met with DeJesus or gave him any advice or talked about this issue.
- d. Plaintiff needs this investigation to show the importance of the violations that occurred and the extent at which officers will go to cover them up.
- e. Plaintiff also believes that someone in high office is squashing this investigation to save those who are in violation of constitutional issues and the only way to address them is to see this report.
